

How Many Birthdays?

You must have had sixty at least! What? Only forty? Then it must be your gray hair. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops these frequent birthdays. It gives all the early, deep, rich color to gray hair, and checks falling hair. And it keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

"I was greatly troubled with dandruff which produced a most disagreeable itching of the scalp. I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor and the dandruff soon disappeared. My hair also stopped falling out until now I have a splendid head of hair."—JAMES C. KINGS, Plainfield, Conn.

In Memoriam.

I knew the Hon. T. Everett Butler well, and knew him to be a courteous christian gentleman. I offer these lines to his Memory:

Death always strikes a shining crest,
Unerring in its aim;
And in yielding its claim
The mortal takes immortal rest.

A score and ten brief years less one,
Measured the span of life
Ended ere scarce begun the strife,
And yet in golden words 'tis writ,
"Well done!"

The first of thoughts began thy tomb
Nor silent, pulseless shaft
That itches virtue in marble art
Long have come the shadows of gloom.

"Come walk with me," said Fame,
And with the guidance of my hand

Stamp upon thy native land
The granite of a righteous name.

Noble the structure of the youth,
And noble the very life plan
Of right with man and man,
And the dearest of earth—the truth.

Faded as fade the stars when day
Floods them with too portentous light,
Thou faded they shine on as bright
Where stars nor life loath never a ray.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger of the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For by Woods & Orme, the leading store.

The Call of Mother.

You are tired to-night. You expect this morning to have an "easy" day, but you have answered to the call of "mother" until the sun is set, and its departing glory almost makes long for the beyond. Now there the children to be put to bed, and limited circumstances may not permit you to have a nurse, but remember you can not keep them with long and your patient services are richly rewarded. Go lovingly, patiently; you know not when the last time may come. Death is deeply, even if we have been to our friends. Comb the golden curls carefully, soothe the head and straighten the little dream and laying your cheek close by the little darling's listen to "Now, now," and then wait patiently the ruby lips to slowly ask God for some wished for toy. Kiss the "good-night." In short look the door of the day gently and leave the child heart-happy. Let none of the shadows that come with riper years slant across the youthful threshold of the soul. The weary foot that rocks the cradle may be hulling a future president or governor; rock on, fond mother, sing your lullaby. God has his use for the frail human-ty that smiles in its infant dreaming. Never let discontent enter your happy home. Keep a cheerful tone and a helpful hand and answer the call of mother.
